Happy Holidays!

The first autumn half term draws to a close and it has been a busy 8 weeks packed with an amazing number of activities in classes, along with exciting events and visitors.

Thank you to all our community for the hard work and support in continuing to make Fairfield fabulous.

Thank you also for your support and interest in your children's learning and development by attending the welcome meetings and parent's evenings.

It is now time for a rest, so we wish you all a happy and safe half term holiday next week.

We look forward to a new half term and lots of continued learning and events.

Children return to school on Monday 6th November.

Gwyliau hapus! Happy holiday!
