Thursday 8th February 2024

Yesterday, Year 3 & 4 learnt about Chinese New Year. They made bookmarks that are believed to bring luck and money. Thank you to parent Mrs Lee for a wonderful morning and for our kind gifts!

World Book Day 2024

Thursday 7th March.

We are inviting the children to come in dressed up as a character or a "clue" about their book on the day and share their favourite stories. There will also be a book swap organised by the PTA - details to follow. Benthg Penarth, our local Library of Things, has a range of costumes available to hire for St David's Day and World Book Day. Costumes can be reserved online using the website

- <https://penarth.benthg.cymru/>.
Vouchers will be sent out today and can be used from the 15th February. Please complete the reading audit on your child's Google Classroom.

Cymraeg yr Wythnos Phrase of the Week

We have decided there will be no phrase of the week next week as it is the holidays. However, we would like to wish everyone 'Gwyliau Hapus' - 'Happy Holidays'. As it is Dydd Miwsig Cymru – Welsh Language Music Day on Friday 9th February, during the holidays spend some time listening and dancing to some Welsh music and/or songs and let us know which are your favourite when we come back to school.
