WORLD
BOOK
DAY
7 MARCH 2024

We are inviting the children to come in dressed up as a character or a "clue" about their book on the day and share their favourite stories.

There will also be a book swap organised by the PTA - details to follow.

Each class has been given £150 from the PTA for the teachers to spend on educational equipment and resources this academic year. A BIG thank you to the PTA for organising all the different fundraising events throughout the year and a BIG thank you to all parents/carers for their kind contributions, helping to raise vital funds for the school.

On Monday we said goodbye to Mrs Boagey, our Breakfast Club and Midday Supervisor.

We all wish her a very happy retirement!

Pack lunches

If your child brings in their own packed lunch for dinners, they must take all their rubbish and food waste back home. This is in preparation for the new recycling rules beginning in April.

Snack money Nursery – Year 2

A healthy snack is provided for your child at a nominal charge of £1 per week – payable each half term.

This half term = £5.

Please send money in a named envelope to your child's class teacher.

Thank you.
