Blwyddyn Newydd Dda / Happy New Year to Fairfield community. We hope you all had an enjoyable holiday, and we are excited to welcome you back for the Spring term. It has been a wonderful start with the children eagerly returning to Fairfield. We are focusing on our new value 'Trying Out / Keep Learning New Things', to encourage everyone to have a go at new activities and skills. The weeks ahead will be full of exciting activities across the school, as the children venture into new topics and experiences.

Polite reminders

- Dryden Road is a school street, with cars not allowed to drive down at the beginning and end of the school day.
- School drop off is between 8:50 am and 9:00 am, please ensure your children arrive between these times for registration.
- Breakfast Club starts at 8:10 am. Children need to be in by 8:30 am for registration.
- Foundation snack this half term is £6 - payable to the class teacher.
- KS2 tuck shop is available daily. Apples and bananas 30p each.

Week ahead
